The SPEECH PATHways Foundation Forms Advisory Board

The Westminster-based SPEECH PATHways Foundation, a fund of the Community Foundation of Carroll County, has recently named the following individuals to their Advisory Board: Kimberly Bell (Speech Language Pathologist), Jocelyn Davy (Certified Reading Specialist), Karen Pelton (Pelton Marketing Services), Christine Rabor (United Healthcare), Ava Shivers (CPA), Mollie McCormick (bytes & words), Jen Kaley (Speech Language Pathologist), and Terri Leese (Special Educator/Evaluator).

“We are delighted to have such an enthusiastic and dedicated group that are so supportive and passionate about our mission, vision and values,” states Bell, founder of the SPEECH PATHways Foundation.

The purpose of the SPEECH PATHways Foundation is to provide funding in the form of grants and scholarships for children in Carroll County, Maryland and the surrounding jurisdictions who are in need of speech and language evaluation and/or therapy.

For additional information about the foundation, go to www.speechpathwaysfoundation.org or call 410-374-0555.

About SPEECH PATHways

SPEECH PATHways is the only comprehensive pediatric speech-language pathology clinic in Carroll County, Maryland, offering services since 1999. Owner Kimberly A. Bell, M.S., CCC-SLP, has been a speech and language pathologist for over ten years. She and her associates offer a wide variety of specialized pediatric programs in addition to traditional speech and language services. Each SPEECH PATHways therapist holds a master’s degree and a Certificate of Clinical Competence from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association; each is also trained or certified in various specialty treatments and techniques. SPEECH PATHways strives to be on the cutting edge of pediatric intervention. Because of the specialty services offered, clients travel from Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia and the Washington, DC, area to the SPEECH PATHways clinic. More information is available at www.speechpathways.net.
